GALLERIES OF JUSTICE

Below is copy of letter I received requesting volunteers for the Galleries of Justice.

'After several discussions with the Chief Constable we have offered to undertake a survey of the historical objects/artefacts and archive material held within Nottinghamshire Constabulary's stations and Head Quarters. The survey will assist the museum and Nottinghamshire Constabulary to assess the collections historical significance and importance with the view to provide permanent storage and hopefully a new exhibition illustrating the history of Nottinghamshire Constabulary at our museum.

The roles for the volunteer is basically therefore, anyone who would be willing to give a day or two over to travel to the various stations and HQ to list and record objects/archives held within them.

If interested contact Bev Baker Collections Manager & Volunteer Co-ordinator at the Galleries of Justice Telephone 0115 952 0555 ext 223 / Direct Line 0115 993 9826 Fax 0115 993 9828
